LEGALISATION MARRIAGE IN THAILAND

If guests require Legal Wedding registration to be made in Thailand, the local registrar will sign the formalities with Bridal Couple in the resort following the ceremony; provided that all pre-requisite papers have been arranged by the Bridal Couple in the country of origin (refer to nationality).

In order to have the marriage legally registered in Thailand; the couple needs to ensure that all documents required to be taken care refer by the Embassy. (PLEASE ADVISE NATIONALITY WHEN ENQUIRING).

Upon arriving in Thailand everything will be taken care of our Liaison Officer. At least 5 days prior to your wedding (Monday-Friday and except Thailand Public Holiday) that the Bridal Couple will meet with the Liaison Officer in the morning at the hotel lobby in Bangkok then we will escort you to your embassy in Bangkok in order to complete the necessary paperwork (please note this must be done in person).

The processing will take approximately half day; you are then free to go to Koh Samui in the evening or the following day. (Please check Embassy holidays in advance to avoid any mis-appointment).

Following the ceremony, the local Provincial Officer will issue a "Thai Marriage Certificate". It is advisable that you check in advance whether this certificate is legally accepted in your home country.
